

Jewish Healthcare Foundation & Pennsylvania Health Funders Collaborative to Host Pennsylvania WIC Stakeholders' Collaborative Summit webinars on 10/14 and 10/15

Please join for the Pennsylvania WIC Stakeholders' Collaborative Summit webinars on Wednesday, October 14 and Thursday, October 15. Hosted by the Jewish Healthcare Foundation and the Pennsylvania Health Funders Collaborative, this virtual summit is an opportunity to bring together statewide leaders, advocates, and stakeholders in the WIC Program to explore and learn together.

The webinars will highlight innovative best practice models from across the country that have proven effective during the COVID-19 pandemic and identify strategies to advocate and apply these best practices in the different regions of Pennsylvania. Participants and speakers will examine key challenges and opportunities related to improving WIC services in the midst of a pandemic and EBT transition, discuss existing strategies and programming that address intersecting WIC issues including using technology and telehealth to improve recruitment and retention of WIC participants, and identify opportunities to build regional partnerships to fill gaps in WIC services that have been exacerbated by the pandemic.

When: Wednesday, October 14 from 9:00 AM—11:00 AM and 2:00 PM—3:00 PM
Thursday, October 15 from 9:30 AM—10:30 AM and 2:00 PM—3:00 PM

Where: Virtually on WebEx
